Endless

Arik Levy · 2017

A perfect sensation of infinity generated by an almost virtual line projected into space. The frame supports a gently curved seat, continuing to travel like a laser beam, where every curve or straight line plays a structural or comfort-related role.

Available models

Stool with base in lacquered steel rod, or in the Desalto exclusive finishes. Lacquered MDF seat or oak veneered. The footrest is covered with a stainless steel profile, except for the chromed frame version.
